

UNIO
EU LAW JOURNAL

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dear Colleagues:

You are most welcome to submit a paper for possible inclusion in the upcoming issue of UNIO – EU Law Journal due to be published on the first trimester of 2015.

UNIO – EU Law Journal is an open access online peer-reviewed journal with a blind review system. It falls within the scope of the Jean Monnet Chair entitled «Citizenship of rights: European citizenship as the fundamental status of nationals of the Member States» and it is scientifically supported by the Centre of Studies in European Union Law (CEDU), Minho University, Portugal (www.cedu.direito.uminho.pt).

The journal welcomes any relevant contribution from different parts of the World and aims to publish high quality articles that may convey unpublished, innovative and significant scientific contributions related with EU issues. UNIO accepts innovative articles in English which cannot be under consideration elsewhere at the time of submission.

Submitted manuscripts mustn't exceed 10.000 words in length, including footnotes, tables and graphics. Abstracts must be of a maximum of 200 words, followed by a maximum of 5 keywords. All articles accepted for review will undergo a blind peer-review process. The submission deadline is 15 December 2014. Articles must be sent by e-mail (unio.cedu@direito.uminho.pt).

For more information on author guidelines and how to submit a paper please visit our website (www.unio.cedu.direito.uminho.pt) or contact us by e-mail indicated supra.

We look forward to receiving your proposals.
